“ I am sadden to hear this news. May you receive all your rewards in heaven. I worked with your mom in fifth grade. Oh the sweet treats she would make and share with us. May the Lord open his arms and welcome her and say thank you for teaching so many children. We were blessed to have her.

“ Momma, how I so miss your smile, your laugh, and most of all your emotional support, you stood right by my side through my radiation and chemotherapy treatment helping me, each step of the way. I will carry your beautiful smile with me everyday until we see each other again, rest momma until we meet again. I Love and Miss You ❤️
