

Clifford "Cliff" Bourassa

August 25, 2022

Mr. Clifford "Cliff" Bourassa, 82 of Sun City, Arizona passed away on August 25, 2022 in Surprise, Arizona. He was born on June 10, 1940 to Eugene and Marion Bourassa. He served in the United States Army.

He is survived by his spouse, Judy Bourassa (Hornik), whom he married 55 years ago in Stamford, Connecticut. His surviving daughters are Megan Bourassa and Kathy Lightfoot (Dan), his surviving sons: Matthew Bourassa (Susan), Randy Bourassa (Kim), and Virgil Bourassa (Linda). His surviving sisters: Irene Larkin and Charla Fox, as well as his brother Charles Bourassa and his 6 grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his brothers James and John, as well as his parents Eugene and Marion Bourassa.

Cliff's ashes will be scattered at La Casa de Cristo Lutheran Church in Scottsdale, Arizona.

The family suggests donations be made to Hospice of the Valley, or Lutheran World Relief in his name.

“ My brother Clifford was a constant in my life. He was the oldest of the six of us. He and I used to have serious conversations when we were young adults. We encouraged each other to finish our educations and to succeed in life. And I'd say he did: he had a full life and wonderful family. My deepest sympathy to Judy, and to Clifford's children. I will miss you, Clifford; my life will never be the same.
