“ Dear Michael, Mary & Family, Tracy & Family & Jim , I was very saddened to read of your loss . As you well know , your Dear Mom & I were friends since Tracy was a toddler . We both decided to make the move to Las Vegas & leave “ Cheesetown” behind as it had less & less to offer & we wanted warmer climate & better life for both. John & I often wondered how you 2 are & how big are your children by now. I miss your Mom very much. We used to spend hours visiting & than more on the phone afterwards in case we forgot something , never running out of interesting subjects to talk about .John & I truly treasured our Friendship with your Mom & if there is Heaven, they must have found each other . While sitting together they are ,sipping glass of Brandy or a glass of fine wine ,not concerned with any “ social distance or wearing face masks “ , but probably talking ,laughing & maybe feeling sorry for all of us left behind & wondering how in the heck we are going to restart our lives now . -:)Since we drifted apart, we did not know where & how to contact Eva ,for several years now .Jim left a brief message on my land line with no details nor his telephone number on how I could contact him.As I tried to search for your Mom’s address or a tel.# , I came across this very heart-wrenching announcement . Jim, I am terribly sorry for your huge loss . I know how much You loved Eva & what you meant to each other. People often say , “ I know how you feel” No they really don’t ! But, I do . Having lost John recently , I still am unable to fill this huge void, that terrible hole in my heart & I doubt that I ever will .Michael, Tracy & Jim , I don’t know how to comfort you . I will carry my special memories of Eva & our times spend together to rest of my life . I love you all.Ana (Ananurse@cox.net)
