“ Fred was a Great Guy and a Smart Guy but what made Fred, Fred for me was his fantastic sense of humor. Years back Fred and Debbie were kind enough to let me stay with them a time or 2 when my franchise would have a yearly meeting in Phoenix. Heaven is now a lot better place!
Debbie's cousin Gerry.

“ My favorites memories of Fred are when we were young we would watch all of the Wrestlemania events on VHS of course. He would tape all of them and my brother and I would binge watch Hulk Hogan and The Ultimate Warrior go around and get crazy. Back when wrestling was still good. We always loved coming to see our favorite people; Debbie and Fred. I will always remember his sense of humor, kindness and all around amazingness of a person. I love you buddy. You will be forever in my heart.

My brother-in-law for over 50 years, Fred was always good company. Whether that meant digging the car out of a snowball, playing with mt granddaughter or just swapping stories with my late husband, Rich. He was also a good husband to Deb, a good brother and a doting uncle to his many nieces and nephews. He will be sorely missed.
