

Gregory Charles Wilson

February 11, 2025

Gregory Charles Wilson, beloved husband, father, grandfather, brother to 8 siblings and friend, passed away peacefully on February 11, 2025, at the age of 71. Born in Los Angeles, California, on March 13, 1953, Greg lived a life marked by dedication, integrity, and a deep love for his family and passions.

A proud alumnus of Servite Catholic Preparatory School, Greg carried his faith with him throughout his life. His professional journey led him into a successful career in sales at Lynx golf and later the world of real estate, where his keen insight and commitment to helping others made him a respected figure in both industries. Away from work, Greg was an avid golfer, often found on the fairways enjoying the sport he loved. A devoted fan of the Anaheim Angels, he rarely missed an opportunity to cheer on his team.

In his later years, Greg found joy in collecting and playing the guitar, embracing music as another means of connection and expression. He also continued to embrace his passion for golf through his collection of memorabilia of both personal and collectable items which maintained his deep connection to the game he loved. However, nothing in life brought him greater happiness than his role as “Pops” to his four cherished grandchildren, Kalie, Brandon, Nolan, and River. Whether sharing stories, offering words of wisdom, or simply enjoying their company, Greg's love for his grandchildren was boundless. His warmth, guidance, and laughter will remain with them always.

Greg is survived by his loving wife, Brenda; his children, Gregory, Randal, and Lisa; and his treasured grandchildren. He was predeceased by his parents, Guy and Jeanette, whose memory he honored throughout his life.

Greg's legacy is one of love, devotion, and a life well-lived. He will be deeply missed by all who knew him.

“ Greg was a GREAT big brother to me! Although we fought a lot as children we truly loved each other and respected each other as we grew older. Greg was always generous with whatever he had. He and Brenda would host Wilson parties at their home when they lived in California. Then when they moved to Arizona I would always look forward to my calls from Greg. He cared about family, always asking how my children were doing. I wish him eternal peace and look forward to the day we will be reunited in heaven.
