

Jason Paul Sutterfield

September 22, 1971 - February 12, 2026

Jason Paul Sutterfield didn't just live life; he grabbed it by the handlebars and went full throttle. A Marine who never lost his edge, Jason was the kind of guy who'd give you the shirt off his back—but only after he'd hit you with some of that classic “Jay humor”.

He was as real as they come and twice as bright as a new silver coin. If the sun was out, you could bet Jason was out in it, soaking up every bit of the day. On the rare occasion he wasn't chasing sunshine, he was probably melting his worries away in a hot spring.

Jason lived fast and played by his own rules. He never passed up a good whiskey or the chance for a legendary Asian back-walk massage. He was a man who lived life entirely on his own terms, always looking forward to the next adventure.

He had a master plan to show us all how to make it to 200, but he left us way too soon. He leaves behind a family that loved him—not just as a father, son, and brother, but as the one-of-a-kind person he was.

Semper Fi, Jay. We'll take it from here, but it won't be half as funny without you.

Tribute Wall

MW

“ Jason called and left a voicemail that said he heard a bird say tweet tweet bird brain. That kind of 8am no coffee styled humor

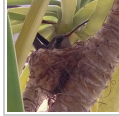

Marissa Wood - March 12 at 01:40 PM

4 days after I turned 18 I gave birth to my firstborn son, I named him Jason Paul, I really liked the name Jason from a TV show back in the day with 3 brothers and one's name was Jason. Paul was for Grandpa Blake. Tom was in the Army stationed in Germany, he didn't see Jason until he was 3 months old when I flew there with a 3 month old and 2 large suitcases, 1 with everything a baby needed, the other was all my clothes. When we arrived in Frankfurt my suitcase wasn't there, only Jason's! I had a new husband and a new baby living in a foreign country and 18 years old. I had to grow up fast and I did. I discovered I loved being a momma and he was such a good baby, As time went by I gave him a brother and two sisters! From the four of them I'm now a Grandma of 10 and Great Grandmother of 3, I just wish we lived in the same state of any of them! Maybe some day ❤️

Susan McIntosh - March 18 at 07:23 PM

Jason Sutterfield was an incredible friend! He lived life to the fullest and made his own rules as he went!! We have the same name (Jason)! We met in 2006 in massage school in Phoenix. He was the only friend that I made in that class! He was truly the most real and authentic person I knew! He loved life to the fullest! When I moved to another country we continued to keep in touch! We talked with each other pretty much every week! Every time I went to Phoenix we always got together and always continued our friendship to the fullest! He was truly one of a kind and you will never meet a person like him because he was so unique!! I will really miss talking on the phone with him and when I got to see him in person! The last time I saw him was in January of 2025 and we had a great time as we always do!! I can't get over the fact that I won't be able to see him or hear his voice over the phone but i know he is here in spirit!! When I was down for a while with a back injury. He was there 100 percent for me and when I had to get 2 back surgeries he had let me stay at his place for 6 months and I will never forget that!! From the time we met in 2006 until 2026 we had an incredible friendship! He had went to Peru like 2 times to do Ayahuasca and he had told me about it and he told me his experience from it and it was an incredible experience for him! When we were talking about Ayahuasca he told me some information about it to look it up .So I looked up more info about it and I was very impressed! When I came to Phoenix in 2018 to possibly get back surgery he told me he had ordered the Ayahuasca from the same guy from Peru. He said to me ,hey I have some Ayahuasca ! Do you want to take it and i said yes absolutely! When I got to Phoenix and we went to the hot springs and went to a camp site and he had some energy stones and put them in a circle and put a towel on the ground and I sat in the middle of the circle and he gave me the rest of the vile he had! Granted that I was in alot of pain , I had the most incredible positive experience ever in my life and it really opened up my mind and I really saw how the world was! WOW!! What a connection to the mother earth!! After I took the whole vile Jason came to me after 2 hours and said you know you can get out of that circle and I said that I wanted to stay longer because I was having an incredible experience and I ended up in that circle for 11 hours and it was so fantastic! I thanked Jason up and down for what he did for me! I was so gratefull that he had shared Ayahuasca with me even though I did not go through the whole thing as he did in Peru 2 or 3 times and when he had some more vile before he had given it to me he went through some more other good experiences as well! Since we went through our different experiences with it , we had such great conversations about it talking about our experiences with Ayahuasca!! It changed us both for the better with such incredible positive experiences!! I will never forget our talks and great friendship!!

R.I.P. my friend and when I go someday I will see you in the spirit world!! Love ya brotha!!!!

Jason Parker - May 01 at 08:07 PM