“ I will always remember nights spent on the porch of an old trailer listening to Ziggy Stardust with Dear John (circa 1970,SIU) and friends. We stayed in touch through the years and our communication was full of humor, warmth and care. I treasure an email he sent me of the iconic Marshall Field Clock in downtown Chicago. It read “I’ll meet you under the Clock” . I imagine this with much love. My deep condolences to John’s Dear Family.

“ John was a loving and caring man. I have know the family since Casey was in 3rd grade, I was his teacher. Ever since then I have been close to the family. I will miss his charm and witty sense of humor. Rest in peace John, you will be missed but never forgotten. Shelly, if you need anything let me know. Love you and your family.
