

Jonathan Paul Veilleux

Jonathan Paul Veilleux, 41, of Surprise, AZ, died peacefully at his home on Thursday, June 17, 2021, after a long personal struggle.

Born in Providence, RI, he was the son of Kathleen Veilleux, with whom he made his home, and Gilbert Veilleux. Jonathan was a graduate of East Providence High School who loved everything about New England. He was a true Townie, would never miss a Boston Red Sox, Celtics, Bruins, or New England Patriots game, and was extremely proud to be from New England. He also enjoyed cooking and being surrounded by his pets.

Jonathan will be forever loved and missed by his sisters, Melanie Veilleux of Surprise, AZ and Erin Dellefemine of Seekonk, MA, one nephew, Tyler Dellefemine and one niece, Emily Dellefemine, aunts, uncles, and cousins.

Those who knew Jonathan know he hated being fussed over and would rather give than receive. In lieu of funeral services, and to honor Jonathan's memory, we ask that all who wish to participate make a donation to Alcoholics Anonymous or the Red Sox Foundation in memory of Jonathan's name.

“ It saddens my heart that Jonathan’s life was taken so young. The entire Veilleux family is like family to us (The Taylors), having grown up with Melanie, Erin and Jonathan. The loss has been shocking and overwhelming. Melanie, Erin and Jonathan are a trio, you never think of one without thinking about the other 2. As a kid, I remember Jonathan to be sweet, kind, cute, and considerate. He is a good natured person despite his personal struggles he has endured over the years. May you Rest In Peace, Jonathan Veilleux!! You are loved and will be remembered forever.
