

Kathryn L. Hardy

July 2, 2025

Kathryn L. Hardy, a beloved mother, steadfast friend, and devoted parent, passed away peacefully on July 2, 2025, in Surprise, Arizona, of natural causes. She was 77 years old.

Born on December 23, 1947, in Billingsley, Alabama, Kathryn was the daughter of Norman S. Patrick and Doris E. Balch. Throughout her life, she held various jobs, ultimately retiring from Bae Systems in 2023.

Kathryn was preceded in death by her parents, Norman S. Patrick and Doris E. Balch, and her beloved husband, Blaine G. Hardy.

She is survived by her loving children, Rikki (Rachelle) Brown and Lynn D. Taylor, and son Michael D. Ward. She also leaves behind her sister, Elizabeth A. Patrick; her brother, Norman S. Patrick Jr.; three grandchildren, Michael L. Brown II, Kathryn E. Mann, and Patrick B. Taylor; and great-granddaughter, Phoebe A. Mann. Kathryn's memory will be cherished by all who knew her.

A service to celebrate Kathryn's life will be held at a later date.

Tribute Wall

LT

“ My mom was an amazing person who loved her family and made it her life mission to make sure her children were taken care of. We love her so much that words can not express the sadness we feel. She was a wonderful friend and considered all her friends extended family. She is with her true love Blaine and she is fishing and camping just like they always did. I love you so very much mom now you can rest with the angels.

Lynn Taylor - July 13, 2025 at 10:01 AM

ZL

“ Zane Lovato lit a candle in memory of Kathryn L. Hardy

Zane Lovato - July 11, 2025 at 02:39 PM

AC

“ Ashley At Simply Cremation lit a candle in memory of Kathryn L. Hardy

Ashley at Simply Cremation - July 10, 2025 at 06:22 PM

NM

It's not often that someone meets the love of there life .But with Blaine and Kathy I believe they were kindred spirits. She was considered a dear daughter by Her in laws R.G and Alice , and a gentle soul and sister to the rest. She is greatly missed.

Nance & mike - July 10, 2025 at 11:37 PM