

Kirsten Gay Boyd

October 28, 2024

Kirsten Gay Boyd was a loving daughter, sister, aunt, and friend. She peacefully passed away on October 28, 2024 at the age of 57 after losing her battle with Breast Cancer. She spent her final days in Phoenix, Arizona surrounded by family and friends.

Kirsten was born in South Bend, IN May 8, 1967 to William (Bill) and Marilyn Boyd. She was the oldest of three girls. She graduated from Scottsbluff High School, and College from University of North Texas in Denton with a Bachelor of Arts.

She was a talented retailer working for Neiman Marcus as well as a traveling clothing representative. Her latest passion was as a caregiver to many people.

Kirsten enjoyed social gatherings and quality time with her loved ones. She was spunky, fierce-loving, humorous, generous, and kind. She was known for her infectious smile, positive spirit, and her joy of giving gifts.

Kirsten is survived by bonus son Nate Blackos (Tom Blackos) of Scottsbluff, NE; Father William (Bill) Boyd, and sisters Allison Newland (Garrett) of Scottsdale, AZ and Heather Sturgess (Tom) of Santa Barbara, CA; Nieces Emily and Rachel Moore, and bonus Niece and Nephew Jessica Newland (great nephew Eli) and Ryan Newland (Brooke) of Scottsdale, AZ.

She was preceded in death by her Mother Marilyn Boyd.

The family wishes to thank the doctor's at Scottsbluff Regional West Hospital, along with St. Joseph's Hospital, and Sherman Hospice House for the wonderful care they provided Kirsten as she fought her battle with cancer.
