

Lynn Alan Davis

November 1, 2025

Lynn Alan Davis, of Goodyear, Arizona, passed away on November 1, 2025, in Surprise, Arizona. He was born on December 9, 1967, in Seattle, Washington, to Lee and Janet Davis.

Lynn proudly served in the United States Coast Guard from September 28, 1986, to May 23, 1991, achieving the rank of QM3. His service reflected his lifelong commitment to helping others and his steady, dependable nature.

Lynn had a soft spot for animals and a genuine passion for teaching and guiding those around him. He loved the thrill of hunting for treasures at thrift stores and auctions, and he was an avid NASCAR fan. Above all, Lynn cherished his family deeply and valued every moment spent with them.

He is survived by his spouse, Jennifer Iverson; his children Spencer Davis, Stirling Davis, Soren Davis, Stefani, Bradley Iverson, Jessica Lickie, and Austin Iverson; his brothers Mark Davis, Greg Davis, Paul Davis, Todd Davis, and Scot Davis; and six grandchildren: Lila, Alexis, Paisley, Ampelina, Savannah, and Melise.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Lee and Janet Davis.

A memorial service will be held at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday, December 13th, at

Refinery Christian Church, 16721 West Indian School Road, Goodyear, AZ
85395.

“ *Though time has carried us far from the days we once shared, the soul remembers what the years cannot erase. A school friend is a gift entrusted to us for a season, and when that season ends, the bond is not broken—only transformed. May their spirit rest in peace, wrapped in light and love, and may we feel their presence not in loss, but in gratitude for the journey our souls once walked together.
