

Maria Elsie Verdugo

February 20, 2025

Mrs. Maria Elsie Verdugo, 75 of Surprise, Arizona passed away Thursday, February 20, 2025, in Surprise, Arizona. She was born on March 22, 1949, to George and Panegiota Symes in London, England.

Maria was a devoted mother, faithfully loving wife, and compassionate soul. She was a beacon of kindness and care, always putting her family first with unwavering love and support. She was a true animal lover, and cherished peaceful moments spent fishing by the water. Her love for reading and writing poetry allowed her to express the beauty she saw in the world around her. Her gentle spirit and warm heart will be missed by all who had the privilege of knowing her.

She is survived by her spouse, Julian Verdugo, her daughter, Salina Aguilar, her son, John Verdugo, and her sisters, Eva Eagen and Roberta Vigil. She also leaves behind 9 grandchildren and 5 great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her mother, Panegiota, and her brother, Paul.

Tribute Wall

AS

“ Ashley At Simply lit a candle in memory of Maria Elsie Verdugo

Ashley at Simply - March 25, 2025 at 12:39 PM

RO

Rest in Peace, my beautiful sister...Love you always and forever...Roberta

Roberta - March 25, 2025 at 11:30 PM

JV

My wife was full of love for her family, she put the needs of her family before hers. She will be greatly missed. RIP my LOVE 💕

Julian Verdugo - March 25, 2025 at 11:35 PM