“ Mike and I grew up on the same street (74th Street), where he was known as “Lil Mike” because there was always a Mike on the street when him, his mom, and brother Ion move there. I just heard of his passing. He was always a very respectful young man that I was glad to call him my Lil Bro. I am so sorry to hear of his passing. May he Rest In God’s Eternal peace. Prayers going up for his family 🙏

“ Respect, admiration and heartfelt sadness to the loss of Mike who always had insight, beyond most, about this crazy world we live in. Whether it was the mechanics of his job or his invaluable opinions on politics and life in general, he always added a new perspective to who we are and where we are going. Always a laugh, always an optimistic point of view, and always an appreciation for what we have and what life gives us, I looked forward to talking to him each week and sharing past and present stories. A loss that we will never understand but one that must have significant meaning to the powers that be. Always in our hearts to eternity....Kipp

“ I remember the 1st time I met Mike, coming into Desert Financial to inquire about business account. He was so funny, had the entire Frontline laughing at the fact saying "I have no money and the bank is designed to take all of it" Every time he'd come into the bank he'd say that! He and I became close building a friendship. Was even blessed to attend him and Shellane wedding. I will truly miss the great conversations, friendship and laughter. Mike you will forever be in my heart ❤️ You are truly something special!

“ I met Micheal when he and Shellane first started dating (she brought him by my office to check him out... girls stuff). I remembered telling her that he seemed quiet and shy. Little did I know 🙄. Micheal was funny, charismatic, and at times very goofy. Michael, you were and still are Shellane's soulmate. You brought the peace and calmness she needed in her life. Thank you for the many happy and fulfilled years you gave Shellane ❤️. You will live on in our memories. "What we have once enjoyed deeply we can never lose. All that we love deeply becomes a part of us".

“ Mike ... became a FRIEND, not because he was here every week keeping the pool maintained but because he truly cared about our association with each other. He IS TRULY MISSED !

“ Here’s a more poetic, keepsake-style version that still keeps the warmth and love of your original message:

*For seven beautiful years, you’ve stood beside us —
through birthdays and anniversaries,
holidays and ordinary days,
woven into every laugh, every memory,
every part of what we call family.
And as the years ahead unfold,
know this:
you will be celebrated, honored,
and loved —
for every moment yet to come.*

“ When I think of Michael, I think of laughter echoing through Grandmother's house on warm summer days. Playing on the Railroad tracks and the park across the street. Those summers were simple, joyful, and full of love. Whether we were at his mom's house or hanging out with other family members, Michael made sure no one was left out. He was funny-so naturally funny. But more than that he was caring. Family meant everything to Michael. He love cookouts-the smell of BBQ, the sound of music, the way everyone came together. And when football season came, around He was in his element-cheering,debating. But the deepest love I saw in Michael was for Shellane. The way he talked about her, it was beautiful. Their love was strong, steady, and full of joy. Michael wasn't just my cousin. He was a friend, my partner in childhood mischief. I will carry those memories with me-those summers, that laughter that love. RIP 🙏

“ My Boy Michael!!!! Man the first time we met, we hit it off, your sarcastic friendly personality I gravitated strait too it while working at the Credit Union. When u used to come into my office they would think we was in there talking about your finances, But was in there talking about those beautiful Invicta Watches and Football, lol Man u would talk bad about your Denver Broncos but was a huge Orange and Blue fan! Our friendship begin to grow, as the months go by that you allowed me to be involved in your beautiful wedding with your strong beautiful wife Shellene. I wasn't one of groomsmen or Best Man, but was honored to be the person that introduced your family while they walked out for the wedding. The day I got that call about you being sick and was fighting for your life I immediately came up and visited you to see if I could give you that friendship push to fight this horrible disease! I'll tell u what, you put in a good fight my brother. This passed Monday I came by and checked on you to see how u was doing, we talked about me bringing you some Gumbo when I come back into town, Friday I got the call that I wasn't going to be able to bring u that Gumbo, Well Michael it was a honor to be your friend, We shall meet again Rest Easy my Guy!!!

“ My cousin Michael was named after my father “Robert McGhee”. Mike (as I affectionately called him) was more than a cousin to me, he was my friend. When he lived in California, we spent so much time talking and laughing on the phone and when he moved to Arizona, our conversations weren’t as frequent, but they definitely were as enjoyable and impactful, I love Mike with my soul and I wanted nothing but the best for him and Shellane as they moved to Arizona. This is a big loss for me because of the place that he held in my life within our family. I will miss him tremendously, I know he’s resting with his mother, his father, my dad, and many other family members that loved him dearly. Rest in Gods arms Mike, I love you always, and you’ll never be forgotten.
Shellane my heart is with you.
