

Pauline Ann Wolf

September 30, 1944 - March 30, 2025

Pauline Ann Wolf, passed away at the age of 80, peacefully at her home on Sunday, March 30, 2025

Pauline was born on September 30, 1944, in Devils Lake North Dakota to Amelia and John Mattern, Pauline was the oldest of 10 children. After moving to Colorado, Pauline lived with a family member and later began working at Lange Boots, followed by a career at Samsonite and retired as a purchaser in 2002.

Pauline met Jack Hicks in Denver, CO, and they married in 1963. Together, they had three children: Jay, Dawn, and Shawn. Pauline and Jack divorced in 1975. Pauline met and married Kim Wolf in 1990 and had a home in Westminster Colorado where they both enjoyed working in their beautiful backyard.

Pauline will always be remembered as a devoted mother to her three children, a cherished grandmother to her twelve grandchildren, and a beloved great-grandmother to her eight great-grandchildren. Her adventurous spirit shone through in her passions for animals, gardening, solving puzzles, and embracing life on motorcycles and in sports cars.

Pauline is survived by her children Dawn and Toby Erwin, Jay and Michele Hicks, stepdaughters Stephanie & Mike Malone and Kirsten & Dean Collins, along with a legacy of love left for her family.

Pauline was preceded in death by her loving parents, Amelia, and John Mattern; two cherished brothers; her devoted husband, Kim; her beloved son,

Shawn; and her dear daughter-in-law, Amy; and Grandson William. The family wishes to extend their heartfelt gratitude for the love and support shown during this time of remembrance.

“ Pauline is my aunt. I remember spending so many days in the beautiful backyard looking at the fish pond, running back and forth over the bridge, even easter egg hunting in the beautiful flowers, carefully of course. She will be missed.
