

Ronald Warrington

July 7, 2021

Ronald Warrington passed away peacefully at the age of 79 at his home in Goodyear, Arizona on June 21, 2021, after a courageous 31/2 year battle with Alzheimer's and Parkinson's. His family surrounded him with love and prayers throughout his illness.

Ron was born in Minneapolis, Minnesota on Dec. 3rd, 1941, to William and Lilian Warrington. He is survived by his wife, Wendy; daughters Melissa and Rhonda; step-children Dan and Jodi, and five grandchildren: Lily, Olivia, Kaleb, Ethan, and Ashley.

Ron was a builder of retirement facilities as well as beautiful homes and townhomes throughout Washington and Oregon. He was passionate about teaching young contractors to build correctly and with integrity, encouraging many to start their own businesses.

Ron's other passion was his dedication and love for Jesus Christ. He had been a lay counselor for many years at Overlake Christian Church in Redmond, Wa., mentoring many men and being a witness of God's love in his community. He traveled to Italy several times with his wife, ministering to the Italian people.

Ron was an avid skier and always dreamed of skiing with Jesus in heaven. He will be remembered for his love of football, his humor, his famous barbecued ribs and steak, and welcoming many visitors to his home. He will be deeply missed by his family and all who know him.

“ To Ron’s family: My heartfelt condolences regarding the loss of Ron. He had a profound impact on my life (both personally and professionally) which remains a strong and positive memory for me. He was a great business partner and friend, and the memories will remain with me as the memories of Ron remain in your heart.

“ To Ron’s family and those who are left behind: I am sorry you lost such a wonderful man. I remember Ron as a kind, jovial, and welcoming uncle whom I was always happy to see. Growing up, I loved hearing about his construction projects and the things he and Aunt Wendy were doing together. Ron has been a source of encouragement and knowledge for me through some of the major decisions in my life. If there is one overarching theme that represents my memory of Ron it is that he lived life with integrity. Thank you, Ron, for feeding into me and being a positive influence on my life. You will be remembered.

“ Wendy is my BFF and Ron was like a brother to me. Went out of his way to be supportive and helpful during rough times. So glad Don and I were able to visit him in April to say our goodbyes. You are a real star Ron and there will be one named after you soon. Rest in peace in the arms of Jesus. Will see you on the other side. Marlen

“ Ron was my very loved brother-in-law. He was kind and gentle, and shared Christian wisdom with many. His home was always welcoming! He and I enjoyed watching Seahawks games, while humorously messaging each other when we weren't watching together. Wendy and Ron have hosted friends and family to their home with their consummate hospitality over the years. You would be treated with Ron's famous ribs or salmon, or one of Wendy's gourmet dishes. Ron had the most wonderful dry sense of humor! He, and my husband, David would laugh throughout our visits! Ron is very loved and missed. My comfort is knowing that he had the most loving care from Wendy, that he is rejoicing with Jesus, and we will all see him again!

“ I met Ron and Wendy when they were doing marriage counseling trying to help us through a difficult time. Later Ron and I were drawn together because we both spent most of our lives in the construction business. We had fun swapping good and bad stories about our life and dealing with people. He was a true friend who never judged or was critical. He would give me his opinion but in a way that was from a helpful heart. Both he and Wendy accepted me and helped me get through a very difficult couple of years. In the end they were one of the few people that were always there when you needed to talk or just hang out. They gave a lot of their personal time to help me and others. I was lucky to know and be included in part of their lives. I do miss him already but hopefully someday we will meet again. Good by my Friend. Ron Solem

“ Ron was a special friend with whom I enjoyed his laughter, fun times on the golf course, and being entertained at his home in Trilogy. Laughter and Generosity were two special blessings Ron shared with everyone. Really missed him a lot when he moved to Phoenix.
