

Salome Rodgers

September 28, 2018

Salome B. (Booth) Rodgers passed away on September 28, 2018 in Surprise, Arizona. She was born June 29, 1928 in Washington, Pennsylvania.

Salome grew up in Washington, Pennsylvania and married Archie Rodgers. They made their home in Michigan until 1979 when they retired to Colorado Springs. In 1989 they moved to Sun Lakes, Arizona.

Salome had many hobbies including ceramics, quilting and was a wonderful cook. She was a Cub Scout den mother, worked at Montgomery Wards, worked as a dental hygienist and during her "retirement" worked at Sears.

She is survived by her sons A. E. (Colleen) Dean Rodgers Jr., and Brett Rodgers and her daughter Cheryl (Donald) Rodgers Dinkgrave. She is further survived by her grandchildren Brooke (Terrain) Rodgers Foust, Erik Rodgers, Kyle (Leah) Rodgers, Amanda Rodgers, Doug Dinkgrave, Scott (Janelle) Dinkgrave and great-grandchildren Banyan and Sequioa Foust, Reid and Blake Rodgers, and Adalyn Dinkgrave, and many loving nieces, nephews and friends.

Salome was preceded in death by her husband Archie E. Rodgers. On December 26, 2018 surrounded by family, she and her husband were laid to rest in the V. A. National Memorial Cemetery of Arizona with the color guard in memory of them. It was a wonderful tribute.

Tribute Wall

GE

“ Archie and Salome were friends of my parents, Sam and June Elliott. Great people who I have not seen since the 1970's. Archie and my dad served together at some point during WWII. I would love ro hear some stories. Living in Henderson NV now

Gary Elliott - September 29, 2020 at 07:53 PM

DD

“ Miss you, and our repetitive banter. You always referred to me as your favorite son-in-law and I referred to you as my favorite mother-in-law.

Don Dinkgrave - May 04, 2020 at 09:03 PM

CD

“ Miss you everyday. Love you.

Cheryl Dinkgrave - March 17, 2019 at 09:18 PM