“ When Tom worked at Honeywell, I was collocated with him on the third floor of the 503 building. We both worked APU documentation. He was a very respected senior editor and then we both retired at the same time. People called him Bubba because he was such a good old boy and not in a bad way. He will be missed.

“ Tom was my supervisor and friend at test cell. He made my experience at Homestead AFB the most memorable of all my assignments. I can't ever remember him losing his temper or raising his voice. He was easy going but had a way of getting us to do thing right. I learned so much from him and so did the rest of the guys. I can see him at this moment in my mind laughing. Thanks for being such a good person and friend. Love you buddy and rest in peace.
